

STEYOYoke

www.steyoyoke.com

Deep house label Steyoyoke has turned the heads of many since its launch and with a talented calibre of artists to boast its no surprise that the label finds itself as one of the up and coming record labels of the industry. The talented team of dj's and producers have seen recognition from some of the industry's biggest heavyweights and much to credit to the labels high end production skills.

The label consists of a passionate and like-minded group of individuals who aim to mix only the very best of music and art together. Steyoyoke is a label that holds the rare power of being able to combine unique art and music whilst not swamping the other. The work of Azuldecobalt has become synonymous with the label and with no surprise in light of his eccentrically beautiful work. The labels love for vinyl has featured this talented artist's eye catching creations since its launch.

Steyoyoke strives to discover only the bravest artists, with forward-thinking underground music that push the boundaries of an otherwise shallow industry. The mission is to create a nurtured music experience that really understands the heart and soul of good music. An evening spent amid Steyoyoke's finest is unlike many other and screams ripe to who have a true appreciation of deep house.

The label has taken the necessary steps in its efforts to keep meeting the high expectations of both, the press and the fans. A well rounded promotion of the label has been merited to the unique and innovative work of the labels artists and has put the label in a stronghold for things to come. Steyoyoke's recognition within the industry and a following of dedicated true fans is testimony to the label's bright future.