When music magicians come together the inevitable result is magic and that's exactly what 'Chasing Thoughts' brings you. Steyoyoke's latest three track EP comprises of one original and two remixes. It features a collaboration from Talul and label icon Soul Button, with remix duties falling to Tony Casanova and Sasch.

The title track 'Chasing Thoughts' instantly draws you in and carries you along a thrumming heart beat style bass line. It's undeniably uplifting, with its beautiful melodies and playful synths that slip and slide all over you. 'Chasing Thoughts' is smooth and intensely hypnotic.

Tony Casanova chooses a healthy dose of tech house to infuse with his version of 'Chasing Thoughts'. His flavours are 100% dirty, with crisp clean edges and a splash of delicious dub, making it infectious to the ear.

The final track on the EP is Sasch's remix, which takes 'Chasing Thoughts' down a path way full of pure deep disco sounds. Possessing 80's style riffs, phat house grooves and not one but two bassline drops, it is a definite dance floor pleaser.
