

Artist: Markey
Title: Dawn
Label: Tonkind

Vinyl Release: 29-08-2012
Digital Release: 14-09-2012
Cat No: TOK023

The “Dawn” EP is the debut release of Markey alias “Sander Markey,” who recently settled down in Berlin after living and working as a DJ and Producer in Gent, Belgium.

Markey has delivered four intriguing tracks covering the spectrum of dark to funky grooves and soulful voices. With support from Mz. Sunday Luv, who gave her voice for the sexy, intermezzo on “Dawn” the EP starts off with alluring rhythmic beats and Mz. Sunday Luv’s hot, broken vocals, reminiscent of Kate Simko. Repetitive grooves and the marching 303 bass drum are topped with a dark, demanding voice delivering a mystic message. What first sounds like a charming dirty string ensemble, is then paired with an odd delayed snare, morphing to signal the beginning of the stalker’s rant.

“Spring Break” brings on a warmer, funkier groove. Speeding up the tempo a bit, with stellar high hats, warm synths, jungle bongos, nice drops and funky male vocals give this track wide spread appeal and dance-ability.

“In the Shade” made in cooperation with Yannick Robyns, delivers more warm and funky grooves. The Bobby McFerrin vocal sample is playful and combined with small bits of exotic spice which brings a more mellow and soulful vibe to the track.

“Facing the Clouds” closes the EP with a melodic and ethereal journey. Quirky and snappy uptempo beats layered over slower, sliding atmospheric beats, combine to lay the perfect foundation for the warm, chilled, eccentric vocals.

TRACKLIST

- A1. Markey - Dawn feat. Mz Sunday Luv (Original Mix)
- A2. Spring Break (Original Mix)
- B1. Markey, Yannick_Robyns - In The Shade (Original Mix)
- B2. Facing the Clouds (Original Mix)

Markey’s ‘Dawn’ hits the shelves late August 2012.

